

LIBRARY RULES

Eating and drinking

In general, food and drink are not allowed in the library to prevent books from becoming soiled or damaged.

Exception

- You may bring drinking water into the library in a clear, sealable bottle.
- No other beverages or other bottles are allowed.
- If you bring a water bottle into the library, please remember to take it back with you when you leave.
- Sandwiches, chocolate, etc. must be kept outside.

Thank you for your understanding!
